Proposing Amendments to Section One (1), Sixteen (16) and Seventeen (17) of Article Three (3) of the Constitution of the State of Florida, Relative to Legislative Authority of the State of Florida.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

That the following Amendments to Section One (1), Section Sixteen (16) and Section Seventeen (17) as amended, of Article Three (3) of the Constitution of the State of Florida be, and they are hereby agreed to, and shall be proposed and submitted to the electors of this State for approval or rejection at the next general election hereafter, that is to say:

Section One (1) of said Article Three (3) shall be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 1. (1) The Legislative authority of this State shall be vested in a Legislature consisting of a Senate and a House of Representatives, and shall be designated, THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, but the people reserve to themselves power to propose laws and amendments to the Constitution of the State, and to enact or reject such laws and amendments at the polls independent of the Legislature, and also reserve at their own option the power to approve or reject at the polls any act, item, or section of any act, or resolution, of the Legislature;

(2) The first power reserved by the people is the Initiative, and twenty (20) per centum of the legal voters shall have the right to propose any legislative measure, and twenty-five (25) per centum shall have the right to propose amendments to the Constitution by petition, and every such petition shall include the full text of the measure so proposed;

(3) The second power reserved is the Referendum and it may be ordered, except as to laws necessary for the immediate preservation of public peace, health and safety, either by petition signed by twenty (20) per centum of the legal voters or by the Legislature;

(4) The percentage of legal voters hereinbefore stated shall be based upon the total number of votes cast at the last general election for the State officer receiving the highest number of votes cast at such election;

(5) All petitions submitted under the power of the Initiative shall be known as

"Initiative Petitions", and shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than four (4) months preceding the date of the election at which the measures so proposed are to be voted upon, and all petitions submitted under the power of the Referendum shall be known as "Referendum Petitions", and shall be filed with the Secretary of State not more than sixty (60) days after the final adjournment of the session of the Legislature, which shall have passed the measure to which the referendum is applied, the filing of a Referendum Petition against any item or section of any act, or resolution, shall not prevent the remainder of such measure from becoming effective;

(6) Any measure or amendment to the Constitution proposed under the Initiative, and any measure to which the Referendum is applied, shall be referred to a vote of the qualified electors of the State and shall become a law when approved by a majority of the votes cast thereon, and upon proclamation of the Governor, and not otherwise;

(7) The veto power of the Governor shall not extend to the Initiative or Referendum measures approved by a majority of the qualified electors;

(8) The reservation of the power of the Initiative and Referendum in this Article shall not deprive the Legislature of the right to repeal any law, propose or pass any measure, which may be consistent with the Constitution of the State and of the United States;

(9) The Legislature shall make suitable provisions for carrying into effect the provisions of this Section.

That Section Sixteen (16) of said Article Three (3) shall be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 16. Each law enacted, whether by the Legislature or by the people under the Initiative, shall embrace but one subject and matter properly connected therewith, which subject shall be briefly expressed in the title, and no law shall be amended or revised to its title only; but in such case the act, as revised, or section as amended, shall be re-enacted and published at length.

That Section Seventeen (17) of said Article Three (3) shall be amended so as to read as follows:

Section 17. Every bill passed by the Legislature shall be read by its title on its first reading in either House, unless one-third of the members present desire it read by sections. Every bill shall be read on three several days, unless two-thirds of the members present when such bill may be pending shall deem it expedient to dispense with this rule. Every bill shall be read by its sections on its second reading and on its final passage, unless on its second reading two-thirds of the members present in the House where such bill may be pending shall deem it expedient to dispense with this rule. The vote on the final passage of every bill or joint resolution shall be taken by yeas and nays, to be entered on the Journal of each House; Provided, That any general revision of the entire laws embodied in any bill shall not be required to be read by sections upon its final passage, and its reading may be wholly dispensed with by a two-thirds vote. A majority of the members present in each House shall be necessary to pass every bill or joint resolution. All bills or joint resolutions so passed shall be signed by the presiding officer of the respective Houses and by the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

The votes cast in compliance with said proposed amendments, and the canvass declarations and returns thereof, shall be subjected to the same regulations and restrictions as are provided by law for general elections in the State of Florida.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of Florida, at Tallahassee, the twenty-fifth day of July, A. D. 1912.
